25 Sep 2018 10:58 ET Press Release: S&PGR Raises Cboe Global Markets Rtg To 'A-'; Outlook Stable

The following is a press release from S&P Global Ratings:

OVERVIEW

-- Thanks to strong cash flow generation, Cboe has improved its financial risk profile, and we project S&P Global Ratings adjusted debt to EBITDA of 1.4x and funds from operations to debt of 54% at the end of 2018.

-- Profitability also improved, thanks notably to the successful integration of Bats Global Markets (Bats), but the company remains reliant on its two flagship products--VIX futures and options and SPX options--in our view.

-- We raised the long-term rating on Cboe to 'A-'.

-- Our stable outlook reflects our expectation that Cboe will keep debt to EBITDA lower than 1.5x and funds from operations to debt higher than 50% over the next two years.

RATING ACTION

NEW YORK (S&P Global Ratings) Sept. 25, 2018--, S&P Global Ratings said today it raised its long-term rating on Cboe Global Markets, Inc . (Cboe ) to 'A-' from 'BBB+'. The outlook is stable.

The upgrade reflects Cboe's improving financial risk profile and profitability, narrowing the gap with higher rated peers. It acknowledges solid performance in most of Cboe's segments since the beginning of the year, partly offset by the dependence on its two flagship products (S&P500 index equity options and VIX).

The stable outlook reflects our expectation that Cboe will keep debt to EBITDA lower than 1.5x and funds from operations to debt higher than 50% over the next two years. It also reflects our expectation that profitability, as measured by EBITDA margin, will remain strong, thanks to the successful integration of Bats.

We could lower the ratings if the concentration onto the two main flagship products increases, if profitability decreases because of substantial margin erosion, or if leverage bounces back beyond 1.75x following a large acquisition or aggressive financial policies.

An upgrade is a remote scenario at this stage, unless the company meaningfully diversifies away from its two flagship products.

The latest Market Talks covering Financial Services. Exclusively on Dow Jones Newswires at 4:20 ET, 12:20 ET and 16:50 ET.

1337 ET - Shares of dialysis provider DaVita sharply lower following passage of a bill by the California Assembly Wednesday that caps insurance payments for dialysis. JPMorgan has estimated it could impair approximately half of DaVita's California earnings, or about 10% of the company's total corporate earnings. The bill still needs to be voted on by the California Senate and then goes to Governor Brown's office where he'll either sign it or veto it by the end of September. Raymond James says that while such a law, if passed, will "leave a mark" on DaVita "it doesn't rise to the level of materiality, in our opinion, unless the 'contagion' spreads to other states." DaVita shares are off 8.7%. (patrick.sheridan@wsj.com)

1235 ET - Warren Buffett says on CNBC that Berkshire Hathaway has bought back some shares since loosening its buyback policy in July. Berkshire changed its policy from authorizing buybacks if prices fall below 120% of book value to allowing buybacks if both Buffett and his business partner Charlie Munger agree that the company's shares are undervalued. "We need a big enough discount, so we're buying it at what we know is a price where the continuing shareholders are going to be better off because we bought it," Buffett says on CNBC. "We're running business for the people who are going to stay, not the ones who are going to leave." (nicole.friedman@wsj.com; @NicoleFriedman)

1212 ET - Belgian stocks close down 0.9% at 3781.68. The only gainers were UCB, which rose 0.2% to EUR79.46, and arGEN-X, which rose 0.1% to finish at EUR79.50. Leading decliners were Proximus, which fell 2.5% to close at EUR19.83, and KBC, which dipped 2.2% to end at EUR61.16. (Dan.Michaels@wsj.com)

1011 ET - Lloyds Banking Group is unlikely to try to buy Prudential PLC's U.K. life insurance and M&G business with its limited excess capital, JPMorgan Cazenove says. JPMorgan notes speculation in an article by the Times of London that Lloyds would be interested in picking up M&G Prudential following Prudential's planned demerger. However, JPMorgan says Lloyds only has excess capital of around GBP2.6 billion in cash terms and would therefore need to fund such a deal via a share issue while its own stock is currently trading at a low earnings multiple. (adam.clark@dowjones.com)

0953 ET - Societe Generale and Royal Bank of Canada have collectively sold EUR2.25 billion in covered bonds on Thursday, according to deal managers. The French investment bank sold EUR750 million in five-year covered bonds priced at par value and at a yield of 0.25%. The bond carries a 0.25% coupon. Demand exceeded EUR1.7 billion of bids. Meanwhile, RBC sold EUR1.5 billion in euro-denominated 7-year covered bonds priced at a coupon of 0.625%, yielding 0.627%. Investors placed orders of EUR1.96 billion. (lorena.ruibal@wsj.com; @lorena_rbal)

0923 ET - Prudential PLC appears undervalued on almost every metric, with its U.S. and Asian business justifying its current market capitalization and its soon-to-be demerged U.K. and European operation effectively free, Berenberg says. The investment bank says Prudential is trading near historical valuation lows and a demerger of the U.K.-based M&G Prudential business will unlock its value as a "capital-light, focused asset gatherer". Berenberg also notes it is possible that either, or both, of the demerged businesses could become takeover targets. "Existing shareholders should add to holdings and non-shareholders should buy shares in anticipation," Berenberg says. (adam.clark@dowjones.com)

0642 ET - European markets are in the red on Thursday as optimism about trade deals on both sides of the Atlantic waned. The Stoxx Europe 600 drops 0.5%, or 2.07 points, to 384.51, with the DAX falling 0.9% and the CAC 40 down 0.4%. "This week's trade-centered optimism seems to be flagging," says IG's Josh Mahony. "This suggests a shift away from the focus on the Mexico trade deal and toward the likeliness of a U.S. deal with Canada ahead of tomorrow's deadline. China remains the one big problem that needs to be resolved." Meanwhile the pound dropped as optimism over a potential U.K.-EU Brexit deal faded. (philip.waller@wsj.com)

0604 ET - GAM shares fell after Credit Suisse cut the price target for the stock. The company has confirmed it will shortly begin the disbursement of proceeds from the liquidation of CHF7.3 billion of Absolute Return Bond Fund assets, Credit Suisse notes as it updates its estimates. The bank cuts its 2018 EPS target for GAM by 28%, and its 2019 EPS forecast by 56%. Shares in GAM are down 11% at CHF7.30. (donatopaoolo.mancini@dowjones.com; @donatopmancini)

0416 ET - Hong Kong stocks steadily slid after opening higher, leaving them with China as noted laggards for regional equities--which in general saw modest declines today. The Hang Seng fell 0.9% to 28164.05 after 3-consecutive gains and the China Enterprises Index shed 1% as mainland equities underperformed further. Financials and property sectors were hit today, with insurer China Life losing 2.1% and Hang Lung Properties dropping 2.5%. (chester.yung@wsj.com; @chester_yung)

0403 ET - Greek banks have made progress in tackling problems and their shares look better value, says HSBC as it upgrades National Bank of Greece , Piraeus Bank and Eurobank to buy from hold and keeps a buy on Alpha Bank . HSBC says improvements in the banks' asset quality are on track and recent sales of nonperforming loans have been capital accretive. "Operational profitability is under more pressure than we thought, leading us to cut net profit estimates, but ongoing progress in dealing with problematic assets and a more appealing valuation offsets that," HSBC analysts say.(philip.waller@wsj.com)

0252 ET - Nordic markets are expected to open slightly lower Thursday with IG calling the OMXS30 down 0.1% at around 1676. "Overnight, Asian equities traded mixed despite the S&P500 closing at an all-time high," says Danske Bank . Emerging markets had a tough day, as the Turkish lira continued its recent decline while the Argentinian peso dropped to an all-time low after President Mauricio Macri asked the IMF to speed up its payment from a $50 billion credit line. The revamp of NAFTA seems likely to be concluded this week, though Canadian PM Trudeau said no NAFTA deal is better than a bad NAFTA deal, Danske adds. Swedish and eurozone confidence surveys and German inflation are in focus today. OMXS30 closed at 1677.22, OMXN40 at 1583.97 and OBX at 849.18. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0232 ET - The FTSE 100 is tipped to open 18 points lower at 7545 as sterling edges higher on market optimism about a potential deal between the U.K. and the EU . The EU 's chief negotiator in the Brexit talks with the U.K., Michel Barnier , said a deal with the U.K. would be unprecedented but warned that Britain "must respect" core structures of the EU such as the single market. The pound trades 0.08% higher against the dollar at $1.3035. "The situation is far from solved, but for now traders are optimistic about the pound on the back of the news," says David Madden at CMC Markets . (philip.waller@wsj.com)

0226 ET - Australian stocks gave up modest gains in a last-hour slide as equities in Asia Pacific paused after broad gains of the past week-plus. The ASX 200 ended down 0.4 point at 6351.8 following yesterday's latest 10 1/2-year closing high, ending a 4-day winning streak. The health-care sector rebounded 0.8%, but financials pulled back 0.4% following their bounced in recent days, most recently fueled by Westpac 's mortgage-rate increases. Also, engineering firm RCR sunk 44% in its return following a month-long trading halt amid its capital-raising efforts. (kevin.kingsbury@wsj.com; @kevinkingsbury)

The latest Market Talks covering FX and Fixed Income. Published exclusively on Dow Jones Newswires throughout the day.

0751 GMT Currently trading at 153.96, the French September OAT contract is under pressure and remains capped by its declining 50-period moving average at 154.12 on a 30-minute chart. In addition, the 14 period RSI on a 30-minute chart stands within its selling area between 50 and 30 and confirms the bearish bias. As a consequence, below strong horizontal resistance at 154.27, further weakness is expected with a first target set at strong horizontal support at 153.70. The downside breakout of this threshold would open the way toward horizontal support and overlap at 153.52 and toward 153.26 in extension. Only a rebound above horizontal resistance at 154.27 would invalidate this bearish view and would favour a rise toward overlap at 154.41 and toward horizontal resistance at 154.56 in extension. 0746 GMT Currently trading at JPY 145.46, the British pound is on the upside, standing above its rising 50-period moving average at JPY 144.58 on a 30-minute chart. Moreover, the intraday RSI stands within its buying area between 50 and 70 and confirms the bullish bias. As a consequence, a first target to the upside is set at horizontal resistance at JPY 146.15. A break above this threshold would trigger a bullish acceleration toward horizontal resistance and overlap at JPY 146.55 and toward Aug. top at JPY 147.15 in extension. Only a break below horizontal support at JPY 144.95 would turn the outlook to bearish with a first target set at previous overlap at 144.30 and a second one set at strong horizontal support at 143.55 in extension. 0700 GMT - Italy's supply of government bonds "will likely drive sentiment for European risk markets," says Mohammed Kazmi, portfolio manager at UBP, ahead of Italy's auction later on. "The auction will be closely followed throughout markets given its timing, coming ahead of the much anticipated budget negotiations next month, as well the sovereign rating review from Fitch on Friday," he says. He thinks the auction will be "fine" given the manageable size and price concession. Italy's Treasury will put up to EUR7.75 billion in four bonds up for sale, including 2023 and 2028 BTPs, and 2024 and 2025 CCTeu's, or floating-rate notes. That being said, the country's outlook remains uncertain, Mr. Kazmi says, maintaining a "cautious" view. (@EmeseBartha)

0652 GMT - Nordic markets are expected to open slightly lower Thursday with IG calling the OMXS30 down 0.1% at around 1676. "Overnight, Asian equities traded mixed despite the S&P500 closing at an all-time high," says Danske Bank . Emerging markets had a tough day, as the Turkish lira continued its recent decline while the Argentinian peso dropped to an all-time low after President Mauricio Macri asked the IMF to speed up its payment from a $50 billion credit line. The revamp of NAFTA seems likely to be concluded this week, though Canadian PM Trudeau said no NAFTA deal is better than a bad NAFTA deal, Danske adds. Swedish and eurozone confidence surveys and German inflation are in focus today. OMXS30 closed at 1677.22, OMNXN40 at 1583.97 and OBX at 849.18. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0649 GMT - Price action in Italian government bonds, or BTPs, looks more encouraging despite a mixed news flow, says Commerzbank 's rates strategist Rainer Guntermann ahead of Italy's upcoming bond auction. "Amid improving risk sentiment, flows should bolster today's BTP auctions as EUR9.5 billion coupon payments could already be put to work in the auctions for T+2 settlement," he says. Italy's treasury will offer a total of EUR6 billion to EUR7.75 billion in four bonds, including the new five-year BTP maturing in October

2023 and three other bonds that will be reopened. These are the December 2028 BTP and two floating-rate notes due October 2024 and September 2025, respectively. The 10-year Italian-German bond spread trades at 271.5 basis points, 0.3 basis points tighter, according to Tradeweb . (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha0)

0641 GMT - The German 10-year Bund yield trades above 0.40% early in the day following late Wednesday's selloff and ahead of German inflation and jobless figures that are due later, along with eurozone economic data. At 0629 GMT the 10-year Bund yield was at 0.41%, up 0.2 basis points, according to Tradeweb . Bund yields shifted higher on Wednesday in the wake of supply from Germany and the European Stability Mechanism--a move reinforced by an upward revision to 2Q U.S. gross domestic product data. Investors will also look to Italy's government-bond auction, with 2023 and 2028 nominal bonds, or BTPs, and 2024 and 2025 floating-rate notes, or CCTeu, on offer. (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha)

0633 GMT - As early gains faded for Asian equities as today's trading progressed, the Nikkei was barely able to hold on. It rose for an 8th-straight day in climbing 0.1% to 22879.29. Exporters outperformed amid the yen's overnight drop, which persisted in Asian trading with the dollar remaining around Y111.70. Sony finished up 0.8% in logging another 11-year high. Meanwhile, 10-year JGB yields are at 0.1%. (suryatapa.bhattacharya@wsj.com)

0632 GMT - The FTSE 100 is tipped to open 18 points lower at 7545 as sterling edges higher on market optimism about a potential deal between the U.K. and the EU . The EU 's chief negotiator in the Brexit talks with the U.K., Michel Barnier , said a deal with the U.K. would be unprecedented but warned that Britain "must respect" core structures of the EU such as the single market. The pound trades 0.08% higher against the dollar at $1.3035. "The situation is far from solved, but for now traders are optimistic about the pound on the back of the news," says David Madden at CMC Markets . (philip.waller@wsj.com)

0527 GMT - Indians are saving more and savings in currency is back in vogue despite government's efforts to discourage it. Gross financial savings rose to 11.1% of gross national disposable income last fiscal from 9.1% a year ago, according to RBI's annual report. However, savings in currency rose to 2.8%, the highest in at least last six years while bank deposits declined to 2.9% from 6.3% a year ago. Analysts cite drop in interest rates and withdrawal of some term deposits by individuals post demonetization as likely factors. Despite the local stock markets hitting new highs, share of financial savings in stocks is still low at 0.9%. (debiprasad.nayak@wsj.com)

0712 GMT - RHB says Sheng Siong looks better prepared than other Singapore retailers to get purchases related to the ongoing Hungry Ghost festival, observed in Taoist and Buddhist cultures. The grocer has the "widest range and availability" of prayer items, the broker says after visiting several in the sector. Then comes the firm's location advantage of being in and around government-build apartments, the bull notes. Shares have jumped 25% this year, including 8.4% this month. (saurabh.chaturvedi@wsj.com; @journosaurabh)

0704 GMT - A rise in GlaxoSmithKline shares has reduced their appeal, says Liberum Capital , as it downgrades the drug company to hold from buy, though it raises its price target to 1700 pence from 1630p. Liberum notes that the shares, which have risen 21% so far this year, now price in a recovery in research and development to break-even productivity despite only being in the foothills of a turnaround. "Further, following consensus upgrades we are now only circa 5% ahead on 2022 earnings per share," the brokerage's analysts say. "We therefore see markedly less upside than before." (philip.waller@wsj.com)

0702 GMT - More major positive surprises aren't likely from Evergrande, says JPMorgan , after the company logged the highest 1H revenue and net profit among Chinese developers. That's because growth is set to slow after this year as Evergrande starts selling more property via residences than it buys through land transactions. But such trends would also allow the company to cut its high debt levels, the reason Evergrande as been a favorite short for hedge funds. Shares are down 4.8% today in Hong Kong following the company's latest results, paring this month's pop to 27%. That would be the most in a year if maintained through tomorrow. (john.wu@wsj.com)

0657 GMT - CapitaLand adds to its Vietnam project pipeline by acquiring a VND1.38 trillion (US$59.4 million) land site in Ho Chi Minh that's liable to hold more than 100 residential units. The proposed development, the company's 13th project in the rapidly growing market, would help CapitaLand counter some expected weakness at home in Singapore amid fresh property-cooling measures. (gaurav.raghuvanshi@wsj.com)

0652 GMT - Nordic markets are expected to open slightly lower Thursday with IG calling the OMXS30 down 0.1% at around 1676. "Overnight, Asian equities traded mixed despite the S&P500 closing at an all-time high," says Danske Bank . The revamp of NAFTA seems likely to be concluded this week, though Canadian PM Trudeau said no NAFTA deal is better than a bad NAFTA deal, Danske adds. Swedish and eurozone confidence surveys and German inflation are in focus today. OMXS30 closed at 1677.22, OMNXN40 at 1583.97 and OBX at 849.18. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0651 GMT - This month's spike in shares of Kunlun Energy isn't done, says bull Daiwa following the company's 1H earnings beat. The natural-gas segment has "ample scope to further improve profitability" amid strong municipal demand growth. Meanwhile, pipeline volume growth was notably bigger than expected and LNG-related earnings continue to rise, the investment bank notes. So its stock target climbs 15% to HK$9.20. Shares are up 3.9% at HK$8.32, putting this week's pop at 15% and Kunlun at 8-month highs. The stock was booted from the benchmark Hang Seng Index but has outperformed it since. (john.wu@wsj.com)

0642 GMT - South Korean stocks saw their longest winning streak since 2009 come to an end after morning gains were erased this afternoon. The Kospi saw a 3-point end-of-session adjustment lower resulting in the index falling 1.68 points to 2307.35 after 9-straight increases. Samsung Electronics jumped 1.9%. But Korean Air fell 1.2% amid declines for many large caps. (kevin.kingsbury@wsj.com; @kevinkingsbury)

0632 GMT - The FTSE 100 is tipped to open 18 points lower at 7545 as sterling edges higher on market optimism about a potential deal between the U.K. and the EU . The EU 's chief negotiator in the Brexit talks with the U.K., Michel Barnier , said a deal with the U.K. would be unprecedented but warned that Britain "must respect" core structures of the EU such as the single market. The pound trades 0.08% higher against the dollar at $1.3035. "The situation is far from solved, but for now traders are optimistic about the pound on the back of the news," says David Madden at CMC Markets . (philip.waller@wsj.com)

0629 GMT - South Korea's Kia entering India's passenger-vehicle market next year as local heavyweight Maruti Suzuki and Hyundai will be tough competitors, says Ambit Capital . The Korean rival and associate has 15% market share in India after being in the country since the mid-1990s. That as every 2nd car sold here is from Maruti Suzuki . The broker says while Kia has a well-diversified portfolio ranging from entry-level hatchbacks to premium SUVs, the firm will likely take at least 5 years to top 5% market share. Kia will likely also need to absorb losses for an extended period, adds Ambit. (debiprasad.nayak@wsj.com)

0626 GMT - Australian stocks gave up modest gains in a last-hour slide as equities in Asia Pacific paused after broad gains of the past week-plus. The ASX 200 ended down 0.4 point at 6351.8 following yesterday's latest 10 1/2-year closing high, ending a 4-day winning streak. The health-care sector rebounded 0.8%, but financials pulled back 0.4% following their bounce in recent days, most recently fueled by Westpac 's mortgage-rate increases. Also, engineering firm RCR sunk 44% in its return following a month-long trading halt amid its capital-raising efforts. (kevin.kingsbury@wsj.com; @kevinkingsbury)

0618 GMT - European bourses are set to open lower Thursday despite renewed optimism on Brexit as Turkey concerns linger, London Capital Group says. "On Wall Street a rally in the big tech stocks helped drive the S&P 500 and Nasdaq further into record territory," it says. "European investors however might well begrudge the string of new records on Wall Street, which have not crossed the pond," it adds. The situation in Turkey continue to weigh. "Moody's downgrading Turkish banks has put a spotlight back on the economic strife in Turkey," LCG says. (pietro.lombardi@dowjones.com; @pietrolombard10)

0553 GMT - A 15-point end-of-day adjustment lower put Taiwan's stock benchmark back in negative territory after the Taiex saw early 0.8% gains erased by the end of the 1st hour of trading. Trading near yesterday's close the rest of the day, the index finished down 5.82 points at 11093.75. But the less-followed TWSE Taiwan 50 logged its first record high since January today. Overall stock volume on the island remained thin at NT$112 billion ($3.7 billion). Taiwan Semi finished up 1.7% after topping its old high this morning and rising as much as 3.5% on continued optimism about this week's AMD news. Apple product assembler Hon Hai and component makers saw declines of some 1% today. (john.wu@wsj.com)

The latest Market Talks covering Financial Services. Exclusively on Dow Jones Newswires at 4:20 ET, 12:20 ET and 16:50 ET.

0816 GMT - Hong Kong stocks steadily slid after opening higher, leaving them with China as noted laggards for regional equities--which in general saw modest declines today. The Hang Seng fell 0.9% to 28164.05 after 3-consecutive gains and the China Enterprises Index shed 1% as mainland equities underperformed further. Financials and property sectors were hit today, with insurer China Life losing 2.1% and Hang Lung Properties dropping 2.5%. (chester.yung@wsj.com; @chester_yung)

0803 GMT - Greek banks have made progress in tackling problems and their shares look better value, says HSBC as it upgrades National Bank of Greece , Piraeus Bank and Eurobank to buy from hold and keeps a buy on Alpha Bank . HSBC says improvements in the banks' asset quality are on track and recent sales of nonperforming loans have been capital accretive. "Operational profitability is under more pressure than we thought, leading us to cut net profit estimates, but ongoing progress in dealing with problematic assets and a more appealing valuation offsets that," HSBC analysts say.(philip.waller@wsj.com)

0652 GMT - Nordic markets are expected to open slightly lower Thursday with IG calling the OMXS30 down 0.1% at around 1676. "Overnight, Asian equities traded mixed despite the S&P500 closing at an all-time high," says Danske Bank . 0632 GMT - The FTSE 100 is tipped to open 18 points lower at 7545 as sterling edges higher on market optimism about a potential deal between the U.K. and the EU . The EU 's chief negotiator in the Brexit talks with the U.K., Michel Barnier , said a deal with the U.K. would be unprecedented but warned that Britain "must respect" core structures of the EU such as the single market. The pound trades 0.08% higher against the dollar at $1.3035. 0626 GMT - Australian stocks gave up modest gains in a last-hour slide as equities in Asia Pacific paused after broad gains of the past week-plus. The ASX 200 ended down 0.4 point at 6351.8 following yesterday's latest 10 1/2-year closing high, ending a 4-day winning streak. The health-care sector rebounded 0.8%, but financials pulled back 0.4% following their bounced in recent days, most recently fueled by Westpac 's mortgage-rate increases. Also, engineering firm RCR sunk 44% in its return following a month-long trading halt amid its capital-raising efforts. (kevin.kingsbury@wsj.com; @kevinkingsbury)

0530 GMT - All else being equal, Westpac 's move to lift variable mortgages rates across its portfolio should bolster its under-pressure margin and mean a 3-4% lift to profit on an annualized basis, Deutsche Bank estimates. That should be sufficient to fully offset the impact of the elevated bank bill funding spreads at their current levels, it says. More broadly, the investment bank agrees it should be positive for the sector and confirms its ability to continue to pass on higher funding costs. Still, the big 4 banks are flat to down 0.8% today after rising by at least 1.8% yesterday. (robb.stewart@wsj.com; @RobbMStewart)

0521 GMT - Australia's corporate regulator is moving to restrict direct sales of life and funeral insurance, and has called for an end to accidental-death insurance, after finding that people are being sold products they don't want, can't afford or don't perform as expected. The regulator found consumers are cancelling direct-life policies in very-high numbers. That as 15% of claims were declined and 27% withdrawn. The regulator also found instances of firms aggressively selling policies and refusing to send paperwork unless a consumer committed to buy. Its report comes ahead of testimony at the next round of hearings to be held by the ongoing judicial probe into potential financial-industry misconduct. (robb.stewart@wsj.com; @RobbMStewart)

0458 GMT - It's positive for Perpetual that during an extended CEO transition the incoming boss Rob Adams will begin his tenure soon, but until he presents his strategy to the market, there is limited scope for the stock to outperform near term, Macquarie argues. That's particularly so while performance trends remain soft, it says. The financial services firm's FY18 underlying profit was in line with Macquarie's forecast, with sustained momentum in corporate trust and private divisions offset by new fund outflows dragging on revenue. Still, shares are up 2.3% today and headed for a 3rd straight month of gains of more than 4%.
(robb.stewart@wsj.com; @RobbMS Stewart)

0407 GMT - Westpac's rivals may be slow off the mark in following the Aussie bank in raising interest rates on home loans, despite feeling a revenue squeeze, UBS says. That's because Westpac's more aggressive growth until June may have caused a larger contraction in its net interest margin. In contrast, NAB's margin fell slightly in the June quarter, while for CBA the impact from funding costs was zero in the June half. While Aussie banks generally follow each other in out-of-cycle repricing, UBS says it "wouldn't be surprised to see the other banks hold off for a few weeks/months as they are not facing the same net interest margin pressure." Taking their time would also enable Westpac's rivals to regain some market share.
(david.winning@wsj.com; @dwinningWSJ)

0329 GMT - After Westpac's surprise mortgage-rate rise Wednesday, Citi says a match by Australia's 3 other big banks would create some sticker shock for mortgaged households and likely dent consumer sentiment for a few months. The investment bank also contends there could be small downside risk to discretionary spending in the medium-term, at the margin leading to a greater risk that the central bank stands pat for even longer than expected. But market participants shouldn't expect a change in language from the RBA any time soon. Citi suspects the central bank will default to its view that mortgage rates remain below average.
(james.glynn@wsj.com; @JamesGlynnWSJ)

0240 GMT - New lending for housing in Australia and overall credit growth have been steadily slowing this year amid falling home prices and banks tightening lending standards. They're providing an additional headwind to financing new residential construction. But JPMorgan notes the pipeline should hold up for some time yet even as it expects to see a further slowing in the flow of new approvals as tighter credit and lower investor/developer activity continue to play out. (james.glynn@wsj.com; @JamesGlynnWSJ)

0149 GMT - Smaller cap stocks in China are extending their declines of the past several days, with the startup-heavy ChiNext and Shenzhen Composite both down 0.2%. That contrasts with tiny gains in larger names this morning as equities across Asia are little changed this morning. Chinese insurers are higher thanks to the news of the government-run China Securities Finance Corp buy stocks in the sector. Oil names are also up after fresh overnight gains for crude. The latest Market Talks covering Equities. Published exclusively on Dow Jones Newswires throughout the day.

0758 GMT - After plunging 61% between September's high and this month's 3-year low, shares of Chinese online-gaming firm NetDragon has jumped 34%, including 15% today following the company's 1H report. The technicals look set for a further rebound, says Thomas Schroeder on the Smartkarma platform. At HK$17.80 ahead of the close, he calls the HK$20-21 area "a really tough barrier" resistance-wise. Overall, "much hinges on the degree of a giveback in September." Shares are now down 17% for the year. (john.wu@wsj.com)

0742 GMT - Stocks don't go straight up. That came back into view today after more than a week of steady gains in Asia Pacific markets. Korea's Kospi saw a nine-year-best nine-day winning streak barely end and Down Under benchmarks narrowly missed closing bests. Equities in the region generally faded this afternoon, but Japan's Nikkei was barely able to hang on with an eighth-straight rise. Though Chinese indexes fell more than 1% and Hong Kong ones are off 1% themselves ahead of the close, most in the region saw muted moves throughout the day. A 3rd exception has been Singapore, whose benchmark is off 0.5% despite a 2.2% jump in heavyweight Singapore Telecom . Following three straight record closing highs of its own, S&P 500 futures are off 0.1%. (kevin.kingsbury@wsj.com; @kevinkingsbury)

0741 GMT - Shares in Bouygues are trading higher after the French telecom-and-construction conglomerate posted better-than-expected results for the first half. Second-quarter revenue of EUR8.92 billion is around 4% ahead of consensus, while net profit of EUR248 million comfortably beat analyst forecasts of EUR216 million, according to Bryan Garnier. Bouygues' telecom division appears strong in a "very competitive environment," while the construction division looks steady despite some difficulties with contracts, Bryan Garnier says. The bank raises its target price on the stock by 28% to EUR48 and maintains its buy rating. Bouygues trades 5% higher at EUR39.21. (nathan.allen@dowjones.com)

0729 GMT - The time is right to buy shares in Bellway , says Deutsche Bank as it upgrades the U.K. housebuilder to buy from hold and raises its price target to 3745 pence from 3716p. Deutsche says the current share price of 2950p, up more than 2% in early trading, is a good entry point for investors, given Bellway 's strong reputation, repeated upgrades and consistent record of dividend payments. "London/south issues look overplayed - while group revenue from London is ahead of peers, Bellway 's private average selling price remains below the sector average and its strong and increasing focus on build efficiencies should support margins," says Deutsche's Glynis Johnson. (philip.waller@wsj.com)

0726 GMT - Chinese stocks shed even more of Monday's gains, generally falling for a 3rd-straight day as the market again lagged others in the region--though Asian equities are down for the day. The Shanghai Composite fell 1.1% to 2737.74 while the Shenzhen Composite lost 1.5% and the startup-heavy ChiNext shed 1.6%. But positive news for troubled vaccine maker Changsheng, which logged a limit-up 5% gain after a record 32-straight days of falling the Shenzhen exchange maximum. (john.wu@wsj.com)

0712 GMT - RHB says Sheng Siong looks better prepared than other Singapore retailers to get purchases related to the ongoing Hungry Ghost festival, observed in Taoist and Buddhist cultures. The grocer has the "widest range and availability" of prayer items, the broker says after visiting several in the sector. Then comes the firm's location advantage of being in and around government-build apartments, the bull notes. Shares have jumped 25% this year, including 8.4% this month. (saurabh.chaturvedi@wsj.com; @journosaurabh)

0704 GMT - A rise in GlaxoSmithKline shares has reduced their appeal, says Liberum Capital , as it downgrades the drug company to hold from buy, though it raises its price target to 1700 pence from 1630p. Liberum notes that the shares, which have risen 21% so far this year, now price in a recovery in research and development to break-even productivity despite only being in the foothills of a turnaround. "Further, following consensus upgrades we are now only circa 5% ahead on 2022 earnings per share," the brokerage's analysts say. "We therefore see markedly less upside than before." (philip.waller@wsj.com)

0702 GMT - More major positive surprises aren't likely from Evergrande, says JPMorgan , after the company logged the highest 1H revenue and net profit among Chinese developers. That's because growth is set to slow after this year as Evergrande starts selling more property via residences than it buys through land transactions. But such trends would also allow the company to cut its high debt levels, the reason Evergrande has been a favorite short for hedge funds. Shares are down 4.8% today in Hong Kong following the company's latest results, paring this month's pop to 27%. That would be the most in a year if maintained through tomorrow. (john.wu@wsj.com)

0657 GMT - CapitaLand adds to its Vietnam project pipeline by acquiring a VND1.38 trillion (US$59.4 million) land site in Ho Chi Minh that's liable to hold more than 100 residential units. The proposed development, the company's 13th project in the rapidly growing market, would help CapitaLand counter some expected weakness at home in Singapore amid fresh property-cooling measures. (gaurav.raghuvanshi@wsj.com)

0652 GMT - Nordic markets are expected to open slightly lower Thursday with IG calling the OMXS30 down 0.1% at around 1676. "Overnight, Asian equities traded mixed despite the S&P500 closing at an all-time high," says Danske Bank . Emerging markets had a tough day, as the Turkish lira continued its recent decline while the Argentinian peso dropped to an all-time low after President Mauricio Macri asked the IMF to speed up its payment from a $50 billion credit line. The revamp of NAFTA seems likely to be concluded this week, though Canadian PM Trudeau said no NAFTA deal is better than a bad NAFTA deal, Danske adds. Swedish and eurozone confidence surveys and German inflation are in focus today. OMXS30 closed at 1677.22, OMXN40 at 1583.97 and OBX at 849.18. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0651 GMT - This month's spike in shares of Kunlun Energy isn't done, says bull Daiwa following the company's 1H earnings beat. The natural-gas segment has "ample scope to further improve profitability" amid strong municipal demand growth. Meanwhile, pipeline volume growth was notably bigger than expected and LNG-related earnings continue to rise, the investment bank notes. So its stock target climbs 15% to HK$9.20. Shares are up 3.9% at HK$8.32, putting this week's pop at 15% and Kunlun at 8-month highs. The stock was booted from the benchmark Hang Seng Index but has outperformed it since. (john.wu@wsj.com)

0642 GMT - South Korean stocks saw their longest winning streak since 2009 come to an end after morning gains were erased this afternoon. The Kospi saw a 3-point end-of-session adjustment lower resulting in the index falling 1.68 points to 2307.35 after 9-straight increases. Samsung Electronics jumped 1.9%. But Korean Air fell 1.2% amid declines for many large caps. (kevin.kingsbury@wsj.com; @kevinkingsbury)

0941 GMT - The Turkish lira extends falls, with USD/TRY rising 2.6% to 6.6342, bringing it closer towards the recent record high of 7.1310, according to FactSet. ING analysts see "more upside risk to USD/TRY in coming weeks." Turkish inflation data, due Monday, is widely expected to show a big increase, given that the lira has weakened significantly recently. Last month, inflation stood at 15.85% year-on-year. Moreover, "odds of a meaningful and sufficient hike" during the September central bank meeting "are not overly high."

0936 GMT - (Dow Jones ) Swedish economic sentiment continues to be more positive than normal, signaling above-average GDP growth during the second half of the year, says Johan Lof at Handelsbanken. In August, the headline indicators from the business and consumer surveys of the National Institute of Economic Research were above expectations, while manufacturing confidence is soaring as ongoing trade disputes have yet to seriously dent global growth, Mr. Lof adds. "As we have reported repeatedly, the previous [consumer confidence] slump was likely explained by worries following the housing price drop that now seems to have stabilized." The retail confidence indicator and more forward-looking indicators look strong, and confidence also rose in the construction sector, he adds. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0917 GMT - After a strong run of indicators in late 2017 and early this year, the Swiss economy may be starting to slow a bit. The KOF Economic Barometer fell 1.4 points in August to 100.3, putting the index back close to its long-term average. "The strongest contributions to this negative result come from manufacturing, followed by the indicators from the exporting sector," the report said. The Swiss franc has been rising in recent weeks, which makes the country's exports more expensive. Euro trading at 1.1339 francs, down 0.3% from Wednesday. (brian.blackstone@wsj.com)

0856 GMT - The Singapore dollar has slid to session lows versus the greenback the past hour amid broader gains for the US currency as King Dollar nears this week's high. Maybank says the currency may rise further from cautious sentiment ahead of the looming additional tariffs on $200 billion of Chinese goods. But it still sees resistance at S$1.3690; the dollar is up 0.1% for Asian trading at around S$1.3670.

0829 GMT - The greenback is liable to feel pressure from Chinese authorities stepping up efforts to support the yuan, a move Bank of Singapore says will also anchor other Asian currencies. It thinks the November midterms could prove to be the peak that dollar bears are awaiting and that US-China trade tensions have yet to top out themselves. The firm has been bullish on the yuan, and its' 12-month target for the dollar is CNY6.50, though that's weaker than CNY6.30 before. The dollar is around CNY6.84 today.

0751 GMT Currently trading at 153.96, the French September OAT contract is under pressure and remains capped by its declining 50-period moving average at 154.12 on a 30-minute chart. In addition, the 14 period RSI on a 30-minute chart stands within its selling area between 50 and 30 and confirms the bearish bias. As a consequence, below strong horizontal resistance at 154.27, further weakness is expected with a first target set at strong horizontal support at 153.70. The downside breakout of this threshold would open the way toward horizontal support and overlap at 153.52 and toward 153.26 in extension. Only a rebound above horizontal resistance at 154.27 would invalidate this bearish view and would favour a rise toward overlap at 154.41 and toward horizontal resistance at 154.56 in extension. 0746 GMT Currently trading at JPY 145.46, the British pound is on the upside, standing above its rising 50-period moving average at JPY 144.58 on a 30-minute chart. Moreover, the intraday RSI stands within its buying area between 50 and 70 and confirms the bullish bias. As a consequence, a first target to the upside is set at horizontal resistance at JPY 146.15. A break above this threshold would trigger a bullish acceleration toward horizontal resistance and overlap at JPY 146.55 and toward Aug. top at JPY 147.15 in extension. Only a break below horizontal support at JPY 144.95 would turn the outlook to bearish with a first target set at previous overlap at 144.30 and a second one set at strong horizontal support at 143.55 in extension. 0700 GMT - Italy's supply of government bonds "will likely drive sentiment for European risk markets," says Mohammed Kazmi, portfolio manager at UBP, ahead of Italy's auction later on. "The auction will be closely followed throughout markets given its timing, coming ahead of the much anticipated budget negotiations next month, as well the sovereign rating review from Fitch on Friday," he says. He thinks the auction will be "fine" given the manageable size and price concession. Italy's Treasury will put up to EUR7.75 billion in four bonds up for sale, including 2023 and 2028 BTPs, and 2024 and 2025 CCTeu's, or floating-rate notes. That being said, the country's outlook remains uncertain, Mr. Kazmi says, maintaining a "cautious" view.

0652 GMT - Nordic markets are expected to open slightly lower Thursday with IG calling the OMXS30 down 0.1% at around 1676. "Overnight, Asian equities traded mixed despite the S&P500 closing at an all-time high," says Danske Bank . Emerging markets had a tough day, as the Turkish lira continued its recent decline while the Argentinian peso dropped to an all-time low after President Mauricio Macri asked the IMF to speed up its payment from a $50 billion credit line. The revamp of NAFTA seems likely to be concluded this week, though Canadian PM Trudeau said no NAFTA deal is better than a bad NAFTA deal, Danske adds. Swedish and eurozone confidence surveys and German inflation are in focus today. OMXS30 closed at 1677.22, OMXN40 at 1583.97 and OBX at 849.18. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0649 GMT - Price action in Italian government bonds, or BTPs, looks more encouraging despite a mixed news flow, says Commerzbank 's rates strategist Rainer Guntermann ahead of Italy's upcoming bond auction. "Amid improving risk sentiment, flows should bolster today's BTP auctions as EUR9.5 billion coupon payments could already be put to work in the auctions for T+2 settlement," he says. Italy's treasury will offer a total of EUR6 billion to EUR7.75 billion in four bonds, including the new five-year BTP maturing in October 2023 and three other bonds that will be reopened. These are the December 2028 BTP and two floating-rate notes due October 2024 and September 2025, respectively. The 10-year Italian-German bond spread trades at 271.5 basis points, 0.3 basis points tighter, according to Tradeweb . (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha0)

0641 GMT - The German 10-year Bund yield trades above 0.40% early in the day following late Wednesday's selloff and ahead of German inflation and jobless figures that are due later, along with eurozone economic data. At 0629 GMT the 10-year Bund yield was at 0.41%, up 0.2 basis points, according to Tradeweb . Bund yields shifted higher on Wednesday in the wake of supply from Germany and the European Stability Mechanism--a move reinforced by an upward revision to 2Q U.S. gross domestic product data. Investors will also look to Italy's government-bond auction, with 2023 and 2028 nominal bonds, or BTPs, and 2024 and 2025 floating-rate notes, or CCTeu, on offer. (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha)

0633 GMT - As early gains faded for Asian equities as today's trading progressed, the Nikkei was barely able to hold on. It rose for an 8th-straight day in climbing 0.1% to 22879.29. Exporters outperformed amid the yen's overnight drop, which persisted in Asian trading with the dollar remaining around Y111.70. Sony finished up 0.8% in logging another 11-year high. Meanwhile, 10-year JGB yields are at 0.1%.

Meanwhile, 10-year JGB yields are at 0.1%. (suryatapa.bhattacharya@wsj.com)

0632 GMT - The FTSE 100 is tipped to open 18 points lower at 7545 as sterling edges higher on market optimism about a potential deal between the U.K. and the EU . The EU 's chief negotiator in the Brexit talks with the U.K., Michel Barnier , said a deal with the U.K. would be unprecedented but warned that Britain "must respect" core structures of the EU such as the single market. The pound trades 0.08% higher against the dollar at $1.3035. "The situation is far from solved, but for now traders are optimistic about the pound on the back of the news," says David Madden at CMC Markets . (philip.waller@wsj.com)

0527 GMT - Indians are saving more and savings in currency is back in vogue despite government's efforts to discourage it. Gross financial savings rose to 11.1% of gross national disposable income last fiscal from 9.1% a year ago, according to RBI's annual report. However, savings in currency rose to 2.8%, the highest in at least last six years while bank deposits declined to 2.9% from 6.3% a year ago. Analysts cite drop in interest rates and withdrawal of some term deposits by individuals post demonetization as likely factors. Despite the local stock markets hitting new highs, share of financial savings in stocks is still low at 0.9%. (debiprasad.nayak@wsj.com)

0329 GMT - After Westpac 's surprise mortgage-rate rise Wednesday, Citi says a match by Australia's 3 other big banks would create some sticker shock for mortgaged households and likely dent consumer sentiment for a few months. The investment bank also contends there could be small downside risk to discretionary spending in the medium-term, at the margin leading to a greater risk that the central bank stands pat for even longer than expected. But market participants shouldn't expect a change in language from the RBA any time soon. Citi suspects the central bank will default to its view that mortgage rates remain below average.

(james.glynn@wsj.com; @JamesGlynnWSJ)

0325 GMT - Though at record lows versus the dollar, the DBS isn't worried about the rupee as it calls the recent selling "orderly" and warranted. The investment bank sees further declines versus the greenback, though India's 2Q GDP report tomorrow could provide short-term support. Weighing on the currency has been wider budget and trade deficits and a sense that the authorities are tolerant of a weaker rupee. The dollar got to INR70.93 earlier but is now back around yesterday's close in the INR70.65 area.
(gaurav.raghuvanshi@wsj.com)

0310 GMT - Aussie business investment fell 2.5% in 2Q, the weakest quarterly result in nearly three years. Investment in new plant and machinery also dipped. ANZ says the result should be considered in the context of strength over the last year. The outlook now suggests that business investment will rise only marginally in 2018-19, down from the 5% growth expected in the 1Q report, and the 8% expected in 4Q.
(james.glynn@wsj.com ; @JamesGlynnWSJ)

0300 GMT - The drought affecting Australia's eastern farming belt is severe. It's even on Queen Elizabeth's radar; she recently sent a letter to struggling farmers. Upon becoming PM a week ago, Scott Morrison put the drought center stage. But Deutsche Bank says there's little reason to think it alters the country's economic outlook or have a material impact on consumer prices. The central bank's latest update didn't move growth forecasts despite acknowledging that the drought "is likely to affect rural output adversely." Agriculture production accounts for only 2% of Australia's GDP, versus 1/3 70 years ago. Rural goods still account for a larger share of overall exports at about 11%, but it was nearly 1/2 as recently as the 1970s.
(james.glynn@wsj.com; @JamesGlynnWSJ)

0246 GMT - Since the change of government in New Zealand a year ago, business confidence has fallen to recessionary levels despite current GDP growth tracking around 2.5%. JPMorgan says it's difficult not to view this as a direct assessment of the new government's policy set and thusly cloud broader signals from the confidence reading. The investment bank notes that demand conditions and hiring matter most, and there both business-survey and real-activity data suggest a slowing but not a dramatic one.
(james.glynn@wsj.com; @JamesGlynnWSJ)

0240 GMT - New lending for housing in Australia and overall credit growth have been steadily slowing this year amid falling home prices and banks tightening lending standards. They're providing an additional headwind to financing new residential construction. But JPMorgan notes the pipeline should hold up for some time yet even as it expects to see a further slowing in the flow of new approvals as tighter credit and lower investor/developer activity continue to play out. 0829 GMT - The greenback is liable to feel pressure from Chinese authorities stepping up efforts to support the yuan, a move Bank of Singapore says will also anchor other Asian currencies. It thinks the November midterms could prove to be the peak that dollar bears are awaiting and that US-China trade tensions have yet to top out themselves. The firm has been bullish on the yuan, and its' 12-month target for the dollar is CNY6.50, though that's weaker than CNY6.30 before. The dollar is around CNY6.84 today.

Emerging markets had a tough day, as the Turkish lira continued its recent decline while the Argentinian peso dropped to an all-time low after President Mauricio Macri asked the IMF to speed up its payment from a $50 billion credit line. The revamp of NAFTA seems likely to be concluded this week, though Canadian PM Trudeau said no NAFTA deal is better than a bad NAFTA deal, Danske adds. Swedish and eurozone confidence surveys and German inflation are in focus today. OMXS30 closed at 1677.22, OMXN40 at 1583.97 and OBX at 849.18. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0649 GMT - Price action in Italian government bonds, or BTPs, looks more encouraging despite a mixed news flow, says Commerzbank 's rates strategist Rainer Guntermann ahead of Italy's upcoming bond auction. "Amid improving risk sentiment, flows should bolster today's BTP auctions as EUR9.5 billion coupon payments could already be put to work in the auctions for T+2 settlement," he says. Italy's treasury will offer a total of EUR6 billion to EUR7.75 billion in four bonds, including the new five-year BTP maturing in October 2023 and three other bonds that will be reopened. These are the December 2028 BTP and two floating-rate notes due October 2024 and September 2025, respectively. The 10-year Italian-German bond spread trades at 271.5 basis points, 0.3 basis points tighter, according to Tradeweb . (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha0)

0641 GMT - The German 10-year Bund yield trades above 0.40% early in the day following late Wednesday's selloff and ahead of German inflation and jobless figures that are due later, along with eurozone economic data. At 0629 GMT the 10-year Bund yield was at 0.41%, up 0.2 basis points, according to Tradeweb . Bund yields shifted higher on Wednesday in the wake of supply from Germany and the European Stability Mechanism--a move reinforced by an upward revision to 2Q U.S. gross domestic product data. Investors will also look to Italy's government-bond auction, with 2023 and 2028 nominal bonds, or BTPs, and 2024 and 2025 floating-rate notes, or CCTeu, on offer. (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha)

0633 GMT - As early gains faded for Asian equities as today's trading progressed, the Nikkei was barely able to hold on. It rose for an 8th-straight day in climbing 0.1% to 22879.29. Exporters outperformed amid the yen's overnight drop, which persisted in Asian trading with the dollar remaining around Y111.70. Sony finished up 0.8% in logging another 11-year high. Meanwhile, 10-year JGB yields are at 0.1%.
(suryatapa.bhattacharya@wsj.com)

0632 GMT - The FTSE 100 is tipped to open 18 points lower at 7545 as sterling edges higher on market optimism about a potential deal between the U.K. and the EU . The EU 's chief negotiator in the Brexit talks with the U.K., Michel Barnier , said a deal with the U.K. would be unprecedented but warned that Britain "must respect" core structures of the EU such as the single market. The pound trades 0.08% higher against the dollar at $1.3035. "The situation is far from solved, but for now traders are optimistic about the pound on the back of the news," says David Madden at CMC Markets . (philip.waller@wsj.com)

0527 GMT - Indians are saving more and savings in currency is back in vogue despite government's efforts to discourage it. Gross financial savings rose to 11.1% of gross national disposable income last fiscal from 9.1% a year ago, according to RBI's annual report. However, savings in currency rose to 2.8%, the highest in at least last six years while bank deposits declined to 2.9% from 6.3% a year ago. Analysts cite drop in interest rates and withdrawal of some term deposits by individuals post demonetization as likely factors. Despite the local stock markets hitting new highs, share of financial savings in stocks is still low at 0.9%.
(debiprasad.nayak@wsj.com)

0329 GMT - After Westpac 's surprise mortgage-rate rise Wednesday, Citi says a match by Australia's 3 other big banks would create some sticker shock for mortgaged households and likely dent consumer sentiment for a few months. The investment bank also contends there could be small downside risk to discretionary spending in the medium-term, at the margin leading to a greater risk that the central bank stands pat for even longer than expected. But market participants shouldn't expect a change in language from the RBA any time soon. Citi suspects the central bank will default to its view that mortgage rates remain below average.
(james.glynn@wsj.com; @JamesGlynnWSJ)

0325 GMT - Though at record lows versus the dollar, the DBS isn't worried about the rupee as it calls the recent selling "orderly" and warranted. The investment bank sees further declines versus the greenback, though India's 2Q GDP report tomorrow could provide short-term support. Weighing on the currency has been wider budget and trade deficits and a sense that the authorities are tolerant of a weaker rupee. The dollar got to INR70.93 earlier but is now back around yesterday's close in the INR70.65 area.
(gaurav.raghuvanshi@wsj.com)

0310 GMT - Aussie business investment fell 2.5% in 2Q, the weakest quarterly result in nearly three years. Investment in new plant and machinery also dipped. ANZ says the result should be considered in the context of strength over the last year. The outlook now suggests that business investment will rise only marginally in 2018-19, down from the 5% growth expected in the 1Q report, and the 8% expected in 4Q.
(james.glynn@wsj.com ; @JamesGlynnWSJ)

0300 GMT - The drought affecting Australia's eastern farming belt is severe. It's even on Queen Elizabeth's radar; she recently sent a letter to struggling farmers. Upon becoming PM a week ago, Scott Morrison put the drought center stage. But Deutsche Bank says there's little reason to think it alters the country's economic outlook or have a material impact on consumer prices. The central bank's latest update didn't move growth forecasts despite acknowledging that the drought "is likely to affect rural output adversely." Agriculture production accounts for only 2% of Australia's GDP, versus 1/3 70 years ago. Rural goods still account for a larger share of overall exports at about 11%, but it was nearly 1/2 as recently as the 1970s.

0856 GMT - The Singapore dollar has slid to session lows versus the greenback the past hour amid broader gains for the US currency as King Dollar nears this week's high. Maybank says the currency may rise further from cautious sentiment ahead of the looming additional tariffs on $200 billion of Chinese goods. But it still sees resistance at S$1.3690; the dollar is up 0.1% for Asian trading at around S$1.3670.

(saurabh.chaturvedi@wsj.com; @journosaurabh)

0829 GMT - The greenback is liable to feel pressure from Chinese authorities stepping up efforts to support the yuan, a move Bank of Singapore says will also anchor other Asian currencies. It thinks the November midterms could prove to be the peak that dollar bears are awaiting and that US-China trade tensions have yet to top out themselves. The firm has been bullish on the yuan, and its' 12-month target for the dollar is CNY6.50, though that's weaker than CNY6.30 before. The dollar is around CNY6.84 today.

0700 GMT - Italy's supply of government bonds "will likely drive sentiment for European risk markets," says Mohammed Kazmi, portfolio manager at UBP, ahead of Italy's auction later on. "The auction will be closely followed throughout markets given its timing, coming ahead of the much anticipated budget negotiations next month, as well the sovereign rating review from Fitch on Friday," he says. He thinks the auction will be "fine" given the manageable size and price concession. Italy's Treasury will put up to EUR7.75 billion in four bonds up for sale, including 2023 and 2028 BTPs, and 2024 and 2025 CCTeu's, or floating-rate notes. That being said, the country's outlook remains uncertain, Mr. Kazmi says, maintaining a "cautious" view.

0917 GMT - After a strong run of indicators in late 2017 and early this year, the Swiss economy may be starting to slow a bit. The KOF Economic Barometer fell 1.4 points in August to 100.3, putting the index back close to its long-term average. "The strongest contributions to this negative result come from manufacturing, followed by the indicators from the exporting sector," the report said. The Swiss franc has been rising in recent weeks, which makes the country's exports more expensive. Euro trading at 1.1339 francs, down 0.3% from Wednesday. (brian.blackstone@wsj.com)

0941 GMT - The Turkish lira extends falls, with USD/TRY rising 2.6% to 6.6342, bringing it closer towards the recent record high of 7.1310, according to FactSet. ING analysts see "more upside risk to USD/TRY in coming weeks." Turkish inflation data, due Monday, is widely expected to show a big increase, given that the lira has weakened significantly recently. Last month, inflation stood at 15.85% year-on-year. Moreover, "odds of a meaningful and sufficient hike" during the September central bank meeting "are not overly high."

0936 GMT - (Dow Jones ) Swedish economic sentiment continues to be more positive than normal, signaling above-average GDP growth during the second half of the year, says Johan Lof at Handelsbanken. In August, the headline indicators from the business and consumer surveys of the National Institute of Economic Research were above expectations, while manufacturing confidence is soaring as ongoing trade disputes have yet to seriously dent global growth, Mr. Lof adds. "As we have reported repeatedly, the previous [consumer confidence] slump was likely explained by worries following the housing price drop that now seems to have stabilized." The retail confidence indicator and more forward-looking indicators look strong, and confidence also rose in the construction sector, he adds. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

Exporters outperformed amid the yen's overnight drop, which persisted in Asian trading with the dollar remaining around Y111.70. Sony finished up 0.8% in logging another 11-year high. Meanwhile, 10-year JGB yields are at 0.1%. (suryatapa.bhattacharya@wsj.com)

0632 GMT - The FTSE 100 is tipped to open 18 points lower at 7545 as sterling edges higher on market optimism about a potential deal between the U.K. and the EU . The EU's chief negotiator in the Brexit talks with the U.K., Michel Barnier , said a deal with the U.K. would be unprecedented but warned that Britain "must respect" core structures of the EU such as the single market. The pound trades 0.08% higher against the dollar at $1.3035. "The situation is far from solved, but for now traders are optimistic about the pound on the back of the news," says David Madden at CMC Markets . (philip.waller@wsj.com)

0527 GMT - Indians are saving more and savings in currency is back in vogue despite government's efforts to discourage it. Gross financial savings rose to 11.1% of gross national disposable income last fiscal from 9.1% a year ago, according to RBI's annual report. However, savings in currency rose to 2.8%, the highest in at least last six years while bank deposits declined to 2.9% from 6.3% a year ago. Analysts cite drop in interest rates and withdrawal of some term deposits by individuals post demonetization as likely factors. Despite the local stock markets hitting new highs, share of financial savings in stocks is still low at 0.9%. (debiprasad.nayak@wsj.com)

0936 GMT - (Dow Jones ) Swedish economic sentiment continues to be more positive than normal, signaling above-average GDP growth during the second half of the year, says Johan Lof at Handelsbanken. In August, the headline indicators from the business and consumer surveys of the National Institute of Economic Research were above expectations, while manufacturing confidence is soaring as ongoing trade disputes have yet to seriously dent global growth, Mr. Lof adds. "As we have reported repeatedly, the previous [consumer confidence] slump was likely explained by worries following the housing price drop that now seems to have stabilized." The retail confidence indicator and more forward-looking indicators look strong, and confidence also rose in the construction sector, he adds. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0917 GMT - After a strong run of indicators in late 2017 and early this year, the Swiss economy may be starting to slow a bit. The KOF Economic Barometer fell 1.4 points in August to 100.3, putting the index back close to its long-term average. "The strongest contributions to this negative result come from manufacturing, followed by the indicators from the exporting sector," the report said. The Swiss franc has been rising in recent weeks, which makes the country's exports more expensive. Euro trading at 1.1339 francs, down 0.3% from Wednesday. (brian.blackstone@wsj.com)

0856 GMT - The Singapore dollar has slid to session lows versus the greenback the past hour amid broader gains for the US currency as King Dollar nears this week's high. Maybank says the currency may rise further from cautious sentiment ahead of the looming additional tariffs on $200 billion of Chinese goods. But it still sees resistance at S$1.3690; the dollar is up 0.1% for Asian trading at around S$1.3670. (saurabh.chaturvedi@wsj.com; @journosaurabh)

0829 GMT - The greenback is liable to feel pressure from Chinese authorities stepping up efforts to support the yuan, a move Bank of Singapore says will also anchor other Asian currencies. It thinks the November midterms could prove to be the peak that dollar bears are awaiting and that US-China trade tensions have yet to top out themselves. The firm has been bullish on the yuan, and its' 12-month target for the dollar is CNY6.50, though that's weaker than CNY6.30 before. The dollar is around CNY6.84 today. (saurabh.chaturvedi@wsj.com; @journosaurabh)

0700 GMT - Italy's supply of government bonds "will likely drive sentiment for European risk markets," says Mohammed Kazmi, portfolio manager at UBP, ahead of Italy's auction later on. "The auction will be closely followed throughout markets given its timing, coming ahead of the much anticipated budget negotiations next month, as well the sovereign rating review from Fitch on Friday," he says. He thinks the auction will be "fine" given the manageable size and price concession. Italy's Treasury will put up to EUR7.75 billion in four bonds up for sale, including 2023 and 2028 BTPs, and 2024 and 2025 CCTeu's, or floating-rate notes. That being said, the country's outlook remains uncertain, Mr. Kazmi says, maintaining a "cautious" view. (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha)

0652 GMT - Nordic markets are expected to open slightly lower Thursday with IG calling the OMXS30 down 0.1% at around 1676. "Overnight, Asian equities traded mixed despite the S&P500 closing at an all-time high," says Danske Bank . Emerging markets had a tough day, as the Turkish lira continued its recent decline while the Argentinian peso dropped to an all-time low after President Mauricio Macri asked the IMF to speed up its payment from a $50 billion credit line. The revamp of NAFTA seems likely to be concluded this week, though Canadian PM Trudeau said no NAFTA deal is better than a bad NAFTA deal, Danske adds. Swedish and eurozone confidence surveys and German inflation are in focus today. OMXS30 closed at 1677.22, OMNXN40 at 1583.97 and OBX at 849.18. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0649 GMT - Price action in Italian government bonds, or BTPs, looks more encouraging despite a mixed news flow, says Commerzbank 's rates strategist Rainer Guntermann ahead of Italy's upcoming bond auction. "Amid improving risk sentiment, flows should bolster today's BTP auctions as EUR9.5 billion coupon payments could already be put to work in the auctions for T+2 settlement," he says. Italy's treasury will offer a total of EUR6 billion to EUR7.75 billion in four bonds, including the new five-year BTP maturing in October 2023 and three other bonds that will be reopened. These are the December 2028 BTP and two floating-rate notes due October 2024 and September 2025, respectively. The 10-year Italian-German bond spread trades at 271.5 basis points, 0.3 basis points tighter, according to Tradeweb . (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha0)

0641 GMT - The German 10-year Bund yield trades above 0.40% early in the day following late Wednesday's selloff and ahead of German inflation and jobless figures that are due later, along with eurozone economic data. At 0629 GMT the 10-year Bund yield was at 0.41%, up 0.2 basis points, according to Tradeweb . Bund yields shifted higher on Wednesday in the wake of supply from Germany and the European Stability Mechanism--a move reinforced by an upward revision to 2Q U.S. gross domestic product data. Investors will also look to Italy's government-bond auction, with 2023 and 2028 nominal bonds, or BTPs, and 2024 and 2025 floating-rate notes, or CCTeu, on offer. (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha)

0633 GMT - As early gains faded for Asian equities as today's trading progressed, the Nikkei was barely able to hold on. It rose for an 8th-straight day in climbing 0.1% to 22879.29. Exporters outperformed amid the yen's overnight drop, which persisted in Asian trading with the dollar remaining around Y111.70. Sony finished up 0.8% in logging another 11-year high. Meanwhile, 10-year JGB yields are at 0.1%. (suryatapa.bhattacharya@wsj.com)

0329 GMT - After Westpac 's surprise mortgage-rate rise Wednesday, Citi says a match by Australia's 3 other big banks would create some sticker shock for mortgaged households and likely dent consumer sentiment for a few months. The investment bank also contends there could be small downside risk to discretionary spending in the medium-term, at the margin leading to a greater risk that the central bank stands pat for even longer than expected. But market participants shouldn't expect a change in language from the RBA any time soon. Citi suspects the central bank will default to its view that mortgage rates remain below average. 0958 GMT - The higher yields at Thursday's Italian bond auctions are the latest reminder that the country is currently on a "worrying path," even if the situation remains manageable for now, says Jan von Gerich, chief strategist at Nordea . "We are far from crisis circumstances, but the gradual rise in Italian yields signals mounting concerns over the current government's policy plans," he says. The two deputy prime ministers have not given any signals of backing down, so more market pressure in the form of higher Italian yields is ahead, Mr. von Gerich says, adding that Italian bond investors should prepare for some rocky months ahead. Italy's treasury sold the maximum targeted EUR7.75 billion in four bonds, paying multi-year high funding costs on the five- and 10-year BTPs. (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha)

0941 GMT - The Turkish lira extends falls, with USD/TRY rising 2.6% to 6.6342, bringing it closer towards the recent record high of 7.1310, according to FactSet. ING analysts see "more upside risk to USD/TRY in coming weeks." Turkish inflation data, due Monday, is widely expected to show a big increase, given that the lira has weakened significantly recently. Last month, inflation stood at 15.85% year-on-year. Moreover, "odds of a meaningful and sufficient hike" during the September central bank meeting "are not overly high." (olga.cotaga@wsj.com)

1008 GMT - China's factory activity likely softened only slightly this month, as impacts from trade disputes outweighed steady domestic demand, economists say. The country's official manufacturing PMI probably have ticked down to 51.1 from July's 51.2, according to a median forecast of 10 economists polled by WSJ. "Trade tensions have contributed to capital outflows and a lower yuan, and are likely to affect manufacturers' businesses in increasingly tangible ways soon," Moody's says. The data are due tomorrow.

1017 GMT - London shares fall as global economic jitters continue to weigh, while the pound lost ground as recent optimism about a potential deal between the EU and the U.K. began to fade. The FTSE 100 Index falls 0.6%, or 42 points, to 7521.01 as sterling drops 0.07% to $1.3016. Analysts highlight uncertainty hanging over U.S. trade talks with various countries. Neil Wilson at Markets.com notes that EU chief Brexit negotiator Michel Barnier's comments Wednesday about the possibility of an unprecedented Brexit deal contained little detail. "We've heard this kind of language in the past," he adds. Barnier further dampened spirits Thursday by reiterating that the EU needed to be ready for a 'no-deal Brexit'. Private-hospital operator Mediclinic gains 1.2%, paring Wednesday's losses. (philip.waller@wsj.com)

Last month, inflation stood at 15.85% year-on-year. Moreover, "odds of a meaningful and sufficient hike" during the September central bank meeting "are not overly high." (olga.cotaga@wsj.com)

0936 GMT - (Dow Jones) Swedish economic sentiment continues to be more positive than normal, signaling above-average GDP growth during the second half of the year, says Johan Lof at Handelsbanken. In August, the headline indicators from the business and consumer surveys of the National Institute of Economic Research were above expectations, while manufacturing confidence is soaring as ongoing trade disputes have yet to seriously dent global growth, Mr. Lof adds. "As we have reported repeatedly, the previous [consumer confidence] slump was likely explained by worries following the housing price drop that now seems to have stabilized." The retail confidence indicator and more forward-looking indicators look strong, and confidence also rose in the construction sector, he adds. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0917 GMT - After a strong run of indicators in late 2017 and early this year, the Swiss economy may be starting to slow a bit. The KOF Economic Barometer fell 1.4 points in August to 100.3, putting the index back close to its long-term average. "The strongest contributions to this negative result come from manufacturing, followed by the indicators from the exporting sector," the report said. The Swiss franc has been rising in recent weeks, which makes the country's exports more expensive. Euro trading at 1.1339 francs, down 0.3% from Wednesday. (brian.blackstone@wsj.com)

0856 GMT - The Singapore dollar has slid to session lows versus the greenback the past hour amid broader gains for the US currency as King Dollar nears this week's high. Maybank says the currency may rise further from cautious sentiment ahead of the looming additional tariffs on $200 billion of Chinese goods. But it still sees resistance at S$1.3690; the dollar is up 0.1% for Asian trading at around S$1.3670. (saurabh.chaturvedi@wsj.com; @journosaurabh)

0829 GMT - The greenback is liable to feel pressure from Chinese authorities stepping up efforts to support the yuan, a move Bank of Singapore says will also anchor other Asian currencies. It thinks the November midterms could prove to be the peak that dollar bears are awaiting and that US-China trade tensions have yet to top out themselves. The firm has been bullish on the yuan, and its' 12-month target for the dollar is CNY6.50, though that's weaker than CNY6.30 before. The dollar is around CNY6.84 today.

0700 GMT - Italy's supply of government bonds "will likely drive sentiment for European risk markets," says Mohammed Kazmi, portfolio manager at UBP, ahead of Italy's auction later on. "The auction will be closely followed throughout markets given its timing, coming ahead of the much anticipated budget negotiations next month, as well the sovereign rating review from Fitch on Friday," he says. He thinks the auction will be "fine" given the manageable size and price concession. Italy's Treasury will put up to EUR7.75 billion in four bonds up for sale, including 2023 and 2028 BTPs, and 2024 and 2025 CCTeu's, or floating-rate notes. That being said, the country's outlook remains uncertain, Mr. Kazmi says, maintaining a "cautious" view.

0652 GMT - Nordic markets are expected to open slightly lower Thursday with IG calling the OMXS30 down 0.1% at around 1676. "Overnight, Asian equities traded mixed despite the S&P500 closing at an all-time high," says Danske Bank . Emerging markets had a tough day, as the Turkish lira continued its recent decline while the Argentinian peso dropped to an all-time low after President Mauricio Macri asked the IMF to speed up its payment from a $50 billion credit line. The revamp of NAFTA seems likely to be concluded this week, though Canadian PM Trudeau said no NAFTA deal is better than a bad NAFTA deal, Danske adds. Swedish and eurozone confidence surveys and German inflation are in focus today. OMXS30 closed at 1677.22, OMXN40 at 1583.97 and OBX at 849.18. (dominic.chopping@wsj.com)

0649 GMT - Price action in Italian government bonds, or BTPs, looks more encouraging despite a mixed news flow, says Commerzbank 's rates strategist Rainer Guntermann ahead of Italy's upcoming bond auction. "Amid improving risk sentiment, flows should bolster today's BTP auctions as EUR9.5 billion coupon payments could already be put to work in the auctions for T+2 settlement," he says. Italy's treasury will offer a total of EUR6 billion to EUR7.75 billion in four bonds, including the new five-year BTP maturing in October 2023 and three other bonds that will be reopened. These are the December 2028 BTP and two floating-rate notes due October 2024 and September 2025, respectively. The 10-year Italian-German bond spread trades at 271.5 basis points, 0.3 basis points tighter, according to Tradeweb . (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha0)

0641 GMT - The German 10-year Bund yield trades above 0.40% early in the day following late Wednesday's selloff and ahead of German inflation and jobless figures that are due later, along with eurozone economic data. At 0629 GMT the 10-year Bund yield was at 0.41%, up 0.2 basis points, according to Tradeweb . Bund yields shifted higher on Wednesday in the wake of supply from Germany and the European Stability Mechanism—a move reinforced by an upward revision to 2Q U.S. gross domestic product data. Investors will also look to Italy's government-bond auction, with 2023 and 2028 nominal bonds, or BTPs, and 2024 and 2025 floating-rate notes, or CCTeu, on offer. German Labor Market Continues to Tighten: HSBC -- Market Talk

1026 GMT - The overall trend toward a tighter labor market in Germany continued in August but the pace of the decline has slowed since the end of 2017, says Stefan Schilbe, chief economist at HSBC. Companies find it increasingly difficult to fill the large number of vacancies due to the lack of skilled workers in many sectors, hence, there is a constraint on further job gains, he says. "For this reason, while labor demand remains fairly solid, we do not expect a reacceleration of employment growth back towards the pace seen at the end of 2017." Jobless claims in August fell by 8,000 from July in adjusted terms, the Federal Employment Agency said. This is in line with economists' forecast in The Wall Street Journal's poll. (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha)

1017 GMT - London shares fall as global economic jitters continue to weigh, while the pound lost ground as recent optimism about a potential deal between the EU and the U.K. began to fade. The FTSE 100 Index falls 0.6%, or 42 points, to 7521.01 as sterling drops 0.07% to $1.3016. Analysts highlight uncertainty hanging over U.S. trade talks with various countries. Neil Wilson at Markets.com notes that EU chief Brexit negotiator Michel Barnier's comments Wednesday about the possibility of an unprecedented Brexit deal contained little detail. "We've heard this kind of language in the past," he adds. Barnier further dampened spirits Thursday by reiterating that the EU needed to be ready for a 'no-deal Brexit'. Private-hospital operator Mediclinic gains 1.2%, paring Wednesday's losses. (philip.waller@wsj.com)

1008 GMT - China's factory activity likely softened only slightly this month, as impacts from trade disputes outweighed steady domestic demand, economists say. The country's official manufacturing PMI probably have ticked down to 51.1 from July's 51.2, according to a median forecast of 10 economists polled by WSJ. "Trade tensions have contributed to capital outflows and a lower yuan, and are likely to affect manufacturers' businesses in increasingly tangible ways soon," Moody's says. The data are due tomorrow. (liyan.qi@wsj.com)

0958 GMT - The higher yields at Thursday's Italian bond auctions are the latest reminder that the country is currently on a "worrying path," even if the situation remains manageable for now, says Jan von Gerich, chief strategist at Nordea. "We are far from crisis circumstances, but the gradual rise in Italian yields signals mounting concerns over the current government's policy plans," he says. The two deputy prime ministers have not given any signals of backing down, so more market pressure in the form of higher Italian yields is ahead, Mr. von Gerich says, adding that Italian bond investors should prepare for some rocky months ahead. Italy's treasury sold the maximum targeted EUR7.75 billion in four bonds, paying multi-year high funding costs on the five- and 10-year BTPs. (emese.bartha@wsj.com; @EmeseBartha)

0941 GMT - The Turkish lira extends falls, with USD/TRY rising 2.6% to 6.6342, bringing it closer towards the recent record high of 7.1310, according to FactSet. ING analysts see "more upside risk to USD/TRY in coming weeks." Turkish inflation data, due Monday, is widely expected to show a big increase, given that the lira has weakened significantly recently. Last month, inflation stood at 15.85% year-on-year. Moreover, "odds of a meaningful and sufficient hike" during the September central bank meeting "are not overly high." (olga.cotaga@wsj.com)

BOC , Nafta Deal Expectations Could Lower USD/CAD to 1.2845: SocGen -- Market Talk

1027 GMT - USD/CAD trades up 0.1% at 1.2933, but expectations of an interest rate increase by the Bank of Canada may lift the Canadian dollar and push USD/CAD down to 1.2845 soon, Societe Generale analysts say. Discussions between Canada and the U.S. over a new trade deal continue and "a trade agreement on Friday may not quite seal the deal for a 25 basis points rate increase next week, but may formalise a move in October." A substantial rise in the second-quarter gross domestic product data is also likely to help, the analysts say. (olga.cotaga@wsj.com)

Notes to the Interim Financial Statements (Unaudited)

1. Accounting Policies

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements are prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Accounting Standard No. 34 "Interim Financial Reporting". The accounting policies and basis of preparation adopted are consistent with those adopted in the Company's financial statements for the year ended 31st December, 2017 except for the adoption of the new and revised Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") and Hong Kong Accounting Standards ("HKASs"), which are effective for accounting period beginning on or after 1st January, 2018 and as disclosed below.

Amendments to HKFRS 2	Classification and Measurement of Share-based Payment Transactions
Amendments to HKFRS 4	Applying HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments with HKFRS 4 Insurance Contracts
HKFRS 9	Financial Instruments
HKFRS 15	Revenue from Contracts with Customers
Amendments to HKFRS 15	Clarifications to HKFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers
Amendments to HKAS 40	Transfers of Investment Property
HK(IFRIC)-Int 22	Foreign Currency Transactions and Advance Consideration
Annual Improvements 2014-2016 Cycle	Amendments to HKFRS 1 and HKAS 28

Except for HKFRS 9, adoption of these new and revised HKFRSs and HKASs did not have any material effect on the financial position or performance of the Group, nor resulted in restatement of comparative figures.

The Group has adopted HKFRS 9 on 1st January, 2018. HKFRS 9 introduces new requirements for classification and measurement, impairment and hedge accounting which have resulted in the following significant changes in accounting policies. As permitted by the transition provisions of HKFRS 9, the Group has not restated comparative information for 2017 for financial instruments in the scope of HKFRS 9. Therefore, the comparative information for 2017 is reported under HKAS 39 and is not comparable to the information presented for 2018. Differences arising from the adoption of HKFRS 9 have been recognised directly in equity as of 1st January, 2018.

Classification and measurement of financial assets

HKFRS 9 "Financial Instruments" introduces a new classification and measurement approach for financial assets that reflects the business model in which assets are managed and their cash flow characteristics, and the new requirements on the accounting for financial liabilities that are designated at fair value through profit or loss.

Prior to 1st January, 2018, the Group's investments in securities were classified as "available-for-sale securities", "held-to-maturity securities" and "securities at fair value through profit or loss". From 1st January, 2018 onwards, the equity securities and debt securities previously classified as "available-for-sale securities" are classified as "financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI")" and "held-to-collect debt securities at amortised cost", respectively; "held-to-maturity securities" are classified as "held-to-collect debt securities at amortised cost", while all other financial assets and financial liabilities continue to be measured on the same basis as measured under HKAS 39.

The following table illustrates the main effects from reclassification and change in measurement of the Group's financial assets at the date of initial application, 1st January, 2018.

	Original carrying amount under HKAS 39 31st December, 2017 measurement HK$'000 category	HKAS 39 measurement	HKFRS 9 reclassification	HKFRS 9 remeasurement	New carrying amount under HKFRS 9 1st
2018

Held-to-maturity securities	725,558	Held-to-maturity	(725,558)	-	-
N/A
Held-to-collect debt securities at amortised cost	-	N/A	727,415	-	727,415
Amortised cost
Available-for-sale securities	3,616,130	Available-for-sale	(3,616,130)	-	-
N/A
Financial assets at FVOCI	-	N/A	3,614,273	2,341,445	5,955,718
FVOCI

Except for the above, the measurement categories and carrying amounts of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities remain the same.

The impact of these changes on the Group's equities and liabilities are as follows:

tax	FVOCI/ available-for-sale investment	Deferred liabilities
HK$'000	reserve HK$'000
Opening balance at 31st December, 2017 under HKAS 39
1,575,124	13,626
Reclassify non-trading equities from available-for-sale securities to financial assets at FVOCI		2,103,554
237,891
Opening balance at 1st January, 2018 under HKFRS 9
3,678,678	251,517

HKFRS 9 "Financial Instruments" (continued) Impairment of financial assets

HKFRS 9 replaces the "incurred loss" impairment model in HKAS 39 with a forward-looking "expected credit loss" model. The expected credit loss model requires an ongoing assessment of credit risk associated with a financial asset and therefore recognise expected credit loss earlier than under the incurred loss accounting model in HKAS 39. The credit losses calculated pursuant to the new requirements are not significantly different from the amount recognised under the current practices.

Therefore, the Group considered no adjustment is necessary.

The Board has resolved to pay an interim dividend of HK2.0 cents per share (2017: HK4.0 cents), which will be paid in cash, for the six months ended 30th June, 2018 payable on or about 2nd October, 2018 to shareholders whose names appear on the Register of Members of the Company as at the close of business on 20th September, 2018.

8. Earnings Per Share Attributable to Ordinary Equity Holders of the Company

The calculation of the basic earnings per share is based on the profit for the period attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company of HK$104,628,000 (2017: HK$265,898,000) and the weighted average number of ordinary shares of 977,550,000 (2017: 978,478,000) in issue during the period.

No adjustment has been made to the basic earnings per share amounts presented for the periods ended 30th June, 2018 and 2017 in respect of a dilution as the Group had no potentially dilutive ordinary shares in issue during those periods.

The premium of HK$12,108,000 paid on the repurchase of such shares was debited to the retained profits account and an amount of HK$3,030,000 was transferred from retained profits of the Company to the capital redemption reserve.

Management Discussion and Analysis

(All changes in % refer to the same period last year)

Profit attributable to equity holders of the Company:	HK$104.6 million	-60.7%
Earnings per share:	HK10.7 cents	-60.7%
Interim dividend per share:	HK2.0 cents	-50.0%

Asia Financial Holdings Limited ("Asia Financial") recorded net profit attributable to shareholders of HK$104.6 million in the first half of 2018, a 60.7% fall over the same period in 2017. This largely reflected realised and unrealised declines in the value of portfolio investments during a period of market weakness. Underwriting profits remained at a steady and healthy level despite a very competitive market. Overall contributions from our joint ventures and associates fell over the same period last year. Our expenses remained under control and in line with inflation.

Asia Financial's prospects for the second half of the year depend on the outlook for global financial markets, which at the time of writing are potentially volatile. The outlook for our insurance operations is generally positive. We will continue with our conservative core investment approach and prudent policies in such areas as cost control in the pursuit of long-term growth in shareholder value.

Economic Background

The international economy showed firm growth in the first half of 2018, with strong consumption and commodity prices. China's economy moderated somewhat under the effects of deleveraging. Hong Kong enjoyed strong domestic and external demand and achieved first-quarter GDP growth of 4.7%. This was reflected in continuing firmness in the labour market and consumption.

However, fears of international trade conflicts hit markets during the period. The Hang Seng Index declined 3.2% during the first half, while H Shares fell by 5.4% and the S&P500 rose 1.7%. Bond markets generally showed weakness owing to concerns about inflation and rising interest rates.

Management Approach and Future Prospects

The global and regional economic fundamentals at mid-2018 look positive, and Hong Kong's economy is performing particularly strongly. The same is true of the US economy, with high corporate earnings spurring stock market gains. One uncertainty is interest rates, which could rise faster than expected owing to higher inflation - with repercussions for the markets. Another is the prospect of tariffs and other protectionist measures disrupting global trade and investment flows, which could affect the Hong Kong economy.

Management Discussion and Analysis (continued)

Management Approach and Future Prospects (continued)

Medium-term prospects for our insurance operations remain positive, with our strong distribution network and market positioning helping us to perform well despite a crowded market. We will continue reviewing and optimizing our mix of business segments. We are also further developing our distribution capacity and product range.

We remain optimistic about the overall longer-term outlook. China's leadership is gradually addressing structural adjustment through increased consumption, urbanization and financial and other reforms. Other parts of East Asia are continuing their own long-term reforms and development. The region is in the midst of a major transformation involving the rise of large middle classes, gradually aging societies and greater use of market-based solutions to demographic and other policy challenges.

This is the long-term environment on which Asia Financial's management focuses. We aim to continue building on our interests in livelihood-related service industries such as insurance, retirement, health and property development, focused on Greater China and elsewhere in Asia. Our investment spheres fit well with our traditional expertise and networks of clients and partners, and as a whole are well-positioned to benefit from long-term economic and social trends. In considering ways to build upon this base, we will adhere to this fundamental approach and exercise patience and caution.

I look forward to reporting generally satisfactory results for the full year.

Business Review

Insurance

Wholly owned subsidiary, Asia Insurance Company, Limited ("Asia Insurance") achieved profit attributable to shareholders of HK$87.3 million in the first half of 2018, a 55.8% decrease compared with the same period in 2017.

Turnover rose by 11.5%. This is a good result in view of our commitment to underwriting discipline and the intense competition in pricing in several major market segments in Hong Kong. There was no exposure to major catastrophes in the period. Underwriting profit was at the same level as in the first half of 2017 (all the above figures are before elimination of intergroup transactions), maintaining Asia Insurance's very healthy profit margin.

Unrealised losses in investments resulted in a year-on-year fall in investment returns. This mainly reflected volatility in equity markets during the period. Dividend and interest income were satisfactory.

The rise in Asia Insurance's costs in the first half of 2018 was in line with the company's business growth and market trends in pay.

The outlook for Asia Insurance's core underwriting activities looks positive for the second half of 2018 and beyond. Our key challenge is soft pricing in the very competitive Hong Kong market. We will continue to utilize our risk management expertise to focus on quality business, optimize the mix of business segments while spreading risk. We are confident that our strengths in these areas will ensure continued healthy underwriting profitability.

Asia Insurance continued in the first half of 2018 to develop its distribution network through new agents and brokers. We are considering various ways to further enhance our product range, employee skills, systems and distribution capacity in anticipation of future trends in clients' needs and market conditions. This includes the launch of an on-line platform for business partners. Looking ahead, we also anticipate possible opportunities arising from the central government's "Greater Bay Area" plan to further integrate Pearl River Delta regions. In general, Asia Insurance expects to continue to build on its status as a leader in Hong Kong's general insurance market with an outstanding reputation for service and professionalism.

In terms of investment performance, trade war concerns make the outlook for the rest of the year uncertain. We will maintain a prudent approach towards portfolio management.

Joint ventures and associates in the insurance segment performed acceptably in the first half of 2018. BC Reinsurance Limited, The People's Insurance Company of China (Hong Kong) Limited and Professional Liability Underwriting Services Limited all maintained generally stable profits. No profits from Hong Kong Life Insurance Limited were booked in the period as it is reclassified as an asset held for sale.

PICC Life Insurance Company Limited ("PICC Life"), in which Asia Financial has a 5% stake, continues to take advantage of its opportunities as a company with a nationwide licence. PICC Life reported RMB69.9 billion in premium income for the first half of 2018. All other business performance and risk control indicators showed positive and healthy figures. PICC Life's insurance liability reserves and solvency ratio were maintained at high levels in line with the business volume. This stake is Asia Financial's single biggest external holding, accounting for 21.1% of our total assets.

Other Portfolio Investment

Trading investments showed realised and unrealised declines in the first half of 2018. This reflected weakness in the Hong Kong and China equities markets, largely due to global fears of trade conflict. Returns from non-traded investments rose owing to growth in dividend income. Net interest income rose owing to higher returns from deposits.

Our portfolio investment approach will remain long-term and not simply focused on year-on-year fluctuations in market valuations. We will continue to place the highest priority on preservation of core shareholder wealth. At the same time, we will remain alert to strategic and long-term opportunities arising from structural changes in the international environment.

Health Care and Wellness

Our 3.6% holding in Bumrungrad Hospital Public Company Limited ("Bumrungrad") in Bangkok remains one of our most solid investments. The stock market valuation weakened in the first half of the year. Bumrungrad's success in attracting patients internationally through the delivery of high-quality medical services looks likely to continue. The company is also continuing to explore new opportunities.

Pension and Asset Management

The Group's holding in Bank Consortium Holding Limited ("BCH"), one of our joint ventures, generated healthy returns in the first half of 2018, helped by general business growth. Bank Consortium Trust Company Limited ("BCT"), a wholly owned subsidiary of BCH, is one of the major providers of Mandatory Provident Fund services in Hong Kong.

Property Development

The Group's interests in real estate are focused on Shanghai and represent 2.9% of our total assets. The main project is a residential and commercial complex in Jiading in Shanghai, in which we have a 27.5% stake.

The only revenues from the project booked in the first half of 2018 resulted from the sale of a number of car parking spaces. The first stage of Phase 3 of the project is now under construction, and pre-sales so far have proved encouraging. We are monitoring the possibility that local measures to regulate the residential property market might affect pricing.

Liquidity, Financial Resources and Gearing Ratio

The Group's cash and cash equivalents as at 30th June, 2018 amounted to HK$2,484,892,000 (31st December, 2017: HK$2,627,224,000).

The Group had a bank borrowing of HK$150,000,000 as at 30th June, 2018 (31st December, 2017: HK$150,000,000), which was secured by certain Hong Kong listed shares, repayable on or before 29th January, 2019 and charged at 1.25% over the 3-month Hong Kong Interbank Offered Rate per annum.

No gearing ratio was calculated as the Group had no net debt as at 30th June, 2018. The gearing ratio was based on net debt divided by total capital plus net debt. Net debt includes insurance contract liabilities, insurance payables, amounts due to a joint venture and associates, interest-bearing bank borrowing and other liabilities, less cash and cash equivalents and securities measured at fair value through profit or loss. Capital represents equity attributable to equity holders of the Company.

The Group's liquidity position remains strong and the Group has sufficient financial resources to satisfy its commitment and working capital requirements.

Charge on Assets

As at 30th June, 2018, Asia Insurance charged assets with a carrying value of HK$119,138,000 (31st December, 2017: HK$119,409,000) in favour of a cedant to secure the performance of Asia Insurance's obligations to the cedant under certain pecuniary loss reinsurance contracts.

The Group also pledged certain equity securities listed in Hong Kong classified as securities measured at fair value through profit or loss with fair value of not less than HK$150,000,000 (31st December, 2017: HK$150,000,000) to a bank to secure the interest-bearing bank borrowing of HK$150,000,000 (31st December, 2017: HK$150,000,000).

Contingent Liabilities

As at 30th June, 2018, the Group had no material contingent liabilities.

Employees and Remuneration Policy

The total number of employees of the Group as at 30th June, 2018 was 281 (31st December, 2017: 274). Employees were remunerated on the basis of their performance, experience and prevailing industry practice. Remuneration of the employees includes salary and discretionary bonus which is based on the Group's results and individual performance. Medical and retirement benefit schemes are made available to all levels of personnel. There was no share option scheme in operation during the six months ended 30th June, 2018. The Group also offers various training and induction programmes to its employees.

The remuneration policy of the Group is formulated and recommended by the Remuneration Committee of the Company for the Board's approval. The Remuneration Committee's responsibilities include reviewing and approving the management's remuneration proposals, and making recommendations to the Board on the adjustments to remuneration packages payable to directors, senior management and employees of the Group.

Purchase, Sale or Redemption of the Company's Shares

During the six months ended 30th June, 2018, a subsidiary of the Company repurchased a total of 3,030,000 ordinary shares of the Company on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange") at an aggregate purchase price of approximately HK$15,141,000 (excluding expenses) which was paid wholly out of retained profits. Such repurchased shares were cancelled during the reporting period. Details of the ordinary shares repurchased on the Stock Exchange during the reporting period are as follows:

Month of repurchase	Number of Ordinary shares repurchased	Highest purchase price per HK$	Lowest purchase price per HK$	Aggregate purchase price (excluding expenses) HK$'000
April 2018	1,354,000	4.89	4.70	6,537
May 2018	1,282,000	5.30	4.83	6,454
June 2018	394,000	5.50	5.30	2,150
	3,030,000		15,141

As a result of the above share repurchases, the issued share capital of the Company was accordingly reduced by the par value of the aforesaid repurchased ordinary shares which were cancelled during the reporting period.

The purchase of the Company's shares during the period was effected by the directors, pursuant to the mandate from shareholders received at the annual general meetings held on 24th May, 2017 and 16th May, 2018. The directors believe that the above share repurchases were exercised in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders and that such share repurchases would lead to an enhancement of the net assets value and/or earnings per share of the Company.

Purchase, Sale or Redemption of the Company's Shares (continued)

Save as disclosed above, neither the Company, nor any of its subsidiaries purchased, sold or redeemed any of the Company's ordinary shares during the six months ended 30th June, 2018 and up to the date of this announcement.

Corporate Governance Code

The Company has applied the principles and complied with all the applicable code provisions set out in the Corporate Governance Code contained in Appendix 14 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited throughout the six months ended 30th June, 2018 except for the deviation as specified and explained below with considered reasons for such deviation:

Code Provision A.6.7 provides that independent non-executive directors and other non-executive directors should attend general meetings. Mr. SOPHONPANICH Chote and Mr. YAMAMOTO Takao, being the then non-executive directors, were unable to attend the annual general meeting of the Company held on 16th May, 2018 (the "2018 AGM") as both did not offer themselves for re-election as director at the 2018 AGM due to other commitment and retired from the conclusion of the 2018 AGM.

Review of Interim Financial Statements

The Audit Committee of the Company has reviewed the unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements of the Group for the six months ended 30th June, 2018 and recommended it for the Board's approval.

Interim Dividend

The Board has resolved to declare an interim cash dividend of HK2.0 cents (2017: HK4.0 cents) per ordinary share for the six months ended 30th June, 2018 payable on or about Tuesday, 2nd October, 2018 to shareholders whose names appear on the Register of Members of the Company on Thursday, 20th September, 2018.

Closure of Register of Members

The Register of Members of the Company will be closed from Tuesday, 18th September, 2018 to Thursday, 20th September, 2018, both days inclusive, during which period no transfer of shares will be effected. In order to qualify for the interim dividend, all transfers accompanied by the relevant share certificates must be lodged with the Company's Hong Kong Branch Registrar, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited, at Shops

1712-1716, 17th Floor, Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong, for registration not later than 4:30 p.m. on Monday, 17th September, 2018.

Publication of 2018 Interim Results and Interim Report

This results announcement is published on the Company's website at www.afh.hk and the HKExnews website at www.hkexnews.hk. The 2018 Interim Report will be despatched to the shareholders and available on the same websites on or about Friday, 14th September, 2018.
